

WORLD TB DAY

March 24 2009

Let's unite all the efforts around the globe to strive for a world free of Tuberculosis.

The Montreal Chest Institute (MCI) is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year. The Centennial Committee is proud to invite you to the:

MCI World TB Day Seminar

March 24th 2009 from 12h00 to 13h30

Meakins-Christie Amphitheater

3626, St-Urbain, Montréal

Keynote speakers:

Dr Mario Raviglione, Director, Tuberculosis Division., World Health Organization, Geneva - video message -

“Global Tuberculosis and the Canadian contribution”

Pr Annmarie Adams, William C Macdonald Professor, School of Architecture, McGill University

“Collapse and Expand: Design for Tuberculosis, 1909-1956”

Dr Kevin Schwartzman, MD, MPH, FRCPC, Respiratory Division, Montreal Chest Institute (MUHC) and McGill University.

“Near and Far: The Two Words of Tuberculosis”

Dr Dick Menzies MD, MPH, FRCPC, Director Respiratory Division, Montreal Chest Institute (MUHC)

“Prospects for Global Tuberculosis control - what will it take”

The seminar will be followed by a reception at the Montreal Chest Institute's boardroom (J2.05)

Please confirm your presence to Isabelle Kling, MUHC Public Relations and Communications at: 514 934 1934 ext 36419

The Montreal Chest Institute opened its doors officially on October 21, 1909 as a dispensary for treatment of tuberculosis with emphasis on early detection, home care and education. The MCI quickly became known as one of Canada's leading hospitals for research and treatment of respiratory diseases. The MCI is affiliated with the McGill University and is part of the McGill University Health Center (MUHC).

L'Institut de recherche du Centre universitaire de santé McGill
The Research Institute of the McGill University Health Centre

McGill